Previous training (please list all your experience in Craniosacral Therapy and/or related training for your first application, use extra document if needed) and send an up-to-date photo (jpg) of yourself:

For the preparation of the menus please indicate: vegan only vegetarian (Fünfseenblick) with fish with meat

Any other food restriction the kitchen needs to know about:

To keep the tuition costs also low in the future we ask those students who own a foldable treatment table and come by car to bring this table along. I can bring my treatment table (Reduction Euro 20,00)

Payment: I would prefer to pay in cash at the beginning of the course.
 I would prefer to pay via bank account (you will receive another letter with the details when the course is definitely taking place)

Registration Food and Lodging 2021 – part 2

All but one course take place in Germany at two seminar houses near Kassel. Only the very first course takes place in the South of Germany near Badenweiler where we used to offer classes. This course does not include food and lodging! Below there is a list of possible accommodations to book by yourself. As we offer the other courses at different residential locations we ask you to fill in your desired accommodation into this form. Rooms availability "first come, first serve". The costs are for 4 nights per person. Additionally, there is the course fee of Euro 600,00. If you plan to come for two consecutive courses please inform the organizer if you wish to stay between classes, as well as when you wish to come for any additional nights or want to bring a partner.
